Comments	Your one chance to ride Eastlink before it is overrun by cars. http://www.bv.com.au/gr eat-rides/41378/	Cruise through Royal Park and down the Moonee Ponds Creek trail. This short ride is on off-road bike paths. Return the same way.	Hear what is happening with advocacy for bicycle facilities in our area. Meet great people. Get involved.	Wander down the Merri Creek then Yarra to Abbotsford Convent.	Hear what is happening with advocacy for bicycle facilities in our area. Meet great people. Get involved.	Ride to Beacon Cove along the light rail trail. Follow the bay past St Kilda. Stop for lunch along the way, and people can catch a train back when they are ready (the fittest could head towards Frankston). Explore the Maribyrnong River to Brimbank Park, then take the Western Ring Road path to Jacana or Gowrie Stations (on the Broadmeadows or Upfield lines) then return to the Zoo by train. Very keen riders could head home via the Merri Creek.	Hear what is happening with advocacy for bicycle facilities in our area. Meet great people. Get involved.	Explore the Dandenong creek, from one train line to another (Ringwood to Dandenong). Keen, fast riders may choose to go on to the Bay (a further 14km), and super keen fast and fit ones to ride home! Remember: public transport is just $2.50 with a Sunday Saver (not available from ticket machines).	Hear what is happening with advocacy for bicycle facilities in our area. Meet great people.
