Having worked directly in the field of sustainable and active transport, I believe that investing in Moreland's cycle infrastructure is key to managing many of the social and environmental challenges faced by Council.

Already, thousands of Moreland residents cycle to work and study daily, and Councillors have a responsibility to respond proactively to the growing demand for additional, dedicated cycle infrastructure in our key transport corridors.

Over the next four years, I hope to bring my experience in the field to help shape the future of our local cycle infrastructure, and to contribute to a healthier and more connected local community.
